DISCLAIMER: If there is a discrepancy between this electronic policy and the written copy held by the policy owner, the written copy prevails.

Purpose

This policy is to standardize the request and procedure for installing signs to either name a road or commemorate a local family, politician, or landmark.

Procedure

1. A written request is to be brought forward to the CAO outlining the reason behind naming an unnamed municipal road.
2. Decision by Council will be made after receipt of request.
3. If request is approved:
 - a.). The road name blades and hardware (bracket and post) will be the cost of the applicant.
 - b.). Public Works will install at no charge to the applicant.
 - c.) In the instance of a new subdivision, the developer will cover the cost of initial road sign.
4. Once Council approves the new name, it cannot be changed for a minimum of 10 Years.
